

Mikhail Klarin

Modeling the Upcoming Future – Let's Do It!

As a Member of the CI Advisory Board, Mikhail runs business, organizational, and social constellations to support high-stake decision-making. He is a seasoned strategic facilitator, executive coach, and organizational consultant. His focus is on supporting Founders, Business Families, Entrepreneurs, Leaders, and Executive Teams in challenging situations.

Mikhail's background in physics and math taught him to look for viable and realistic solutions. Art and psychology gave him the background for a fluid, organic, non-violent intervention methodology.

As an opinion leader in the business/corporate L&D industry – including training, mentoring, executive coaching, and management consulting – Mikhail is the Co-founder and the first Chair of the Association of Russian-Speaking Coaches. His unique competency is combining rapid in-depth methods of confidential business decision-making based on a systemic approach, and organizational, business, and societal constellations.

His academic background is Ph.D., DrSc, corresponding member of the Russian Academy of Education.

In his 1 day workshop within the Keynote Programme, Mikhail introduces the modeling of the upcoming future.
